Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: . . . he found he was unable to liquidate the total amount and committed suicide. Had this treasurer had an adequate accounting system showing at the close of business each day the exact amount he should account for, he never would have permitted himself to get into this embarrassing position, and in place of filling a suicide. s grave, would have been saved to his family and the community as a respected citizen. In a few other counties indictments, convictions and removals have been secured for criminal practices, but we are pleased to state the number has been exceedingly small. In a number of other counties it was found that the boards of supervisors sometimes unnecessarily were allowing illegal compensation to county officials ranging from a few hundred dollars to as high as two thousand dollars per year. In one county the board had been allowing the treasurer and sheriff illegal compensation to the amount of about two thous total illegal outlay in the aggregate of over sixty thousand dollars. Many other similar cases might be cited had we the space. COUNTY OFFICERS, SALARIES. Our first examination disclosed a great lack of uniformity in the salaries of county officers. In some counties the recorder was receiving a greater salary than the auditor, treasurer or clerk of the courts. The law then fixed the compensation of the county treasurer at fifteen hundred dollars a year in all counties of the state with a provision that the board of supervisors...
