Excerpt: . . . 11 know, because I spoke to President Clinton about this just 2 days ago, that he wishes to deal with this problem head-on. I can report to you today that the Security Council, having bro-ken new ground by dealing with a health issue for the first time in its history, intends to keep it up. The Economic and Social Coun-cil will be having meetings on it. We are going to be meeting with businessmen in New York. Were working very closely with the White House. This was not a gimmick or a piece of theater; it was the beginning of an intensification of an issue which we cannot leave alone. Id now like to turn to the Congo, Mr. Chairman, because we be-lieve, as you know, that the time has come to take the next steps in the search to bring peace to that explosive area. You...
