II. The first and second assistants of the automatic rifleman will each be armed with a magazine rifle as laid down in table 7, Series A, Tables of Organization, January 14, 1918, and to each of these assistants will be issued the same design cartridge belt; that is, one without butt rest and containing four pockets for eight automatic rifle magazines and four pockets for eight rifle clips. (320.2, A. G. O.) Clothing for officers and enlisted men of foreign armies. III. The sale of clothing to officers of foreign armies and its issue to enlisted men of the French Army on duty with or attached to the military forces of the United States is authorized. Such sales and issues, however, will be subject to the same restrictions and limitations as are imposed upon sales of clothing to officers and upon issues to enlisted men who are in the military service of the United States. Vouchers covering issues of clothing to enlisted men of the French Army will be forwarded by the accountable officer to the Quartermaster General of the Army for transmission to the French embassy.
