B-284442 per pupil expenditure averaged 6, 189 in school year 1997-98, and state averages ranged from 3, 969 to 9, 643. Although many charter schools use this per pupil allocation to help pay their facility costs (typically rent and renovation expenses), the literature indicates that the allocation often does not fully cover these costs for several reasons. First, charter schools in many states receive less than 100 percent of the allocation that school districts or states give to traditional public schools. Allocations for charter schools range from 75 to 100 percent of what other schools receive. For example, in one county in Colorado, traditional public schools received an annual allocation of 4, 555. 66 per pupil for operations in school year 1998-99. In contrast, charter schools in that county received 85 percent of the per pupil allocation, or 3, 873. 21. Second, because of their small enrollments,...
