Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Those who have been fortunate enough to read The Gospel for an Age of Doubt, by Dr. Henry Van Dyke, will welcome this companion volume. Dr. Van Dyke s style is always simple, direct, and convincing. One epigram following hard upon another gives added force to the treatment of the subject. Dr. Van Dyke has not given us anything startlingly new, but he has said things in a new and attractive way. Something of the style may be gathered from the following excerpt: Doubt is the blinding mist that rises between man s spiritual vision and the eternal truth. Sin is the great gulf that separates man s moral character from the divine ideal. The pain of doubt is an evidence that man was made for faith. The shame of sin is an evidence that man was created for holiness. A gospel for humanity must be good news both for doubters and sinners. its sympathy will always be the measure of its power. Dr. Van Dyke is expectant, hopeful; he believes in a renaissance of religion. The educated youth of today are turning with a mighty, world-wide movement toward the banner of a militant, expectant, imperial Christianity. While the sins of the world are many, the sin of the world is one. The desire of good and the recognition of evil are the two facts around which human society is organized. The necessity of evil is denied, for the practical knowledge of the nature of evil comes to us through the same moral sense which makes us aware of its existence. The sense of sin is God s unbroken hold upon the heart of man. A considerable portion...
